	13.02.2004 Shri R. Mukhopadhyaya, counsel for the petitioner. The petitioner has preferred this writ petition under Article 226 & 227 of the Constitution of India seeking a direction that the respondents be directed to grant notional seniority to the petitioners as has been given to respondent No.3 & 4. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the respondents No.3 & 4 are juniors to the petitioners even then they have been granted notional seniority whereas the claim of the petitioners have not been considered. Therefore, he submits that the petitioners may be allowed to make a representation to respondent No.1 through respondent No.2. Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioners are allowed to make a detailed representation to respondent No.1 through respondent No.2, raising all their grievances within a period of 15 days from today and in turn, respondents after considering all his grievances raised by the petitioners shall decide the representation within a period of another 60 days from the date of the receipt of the same in an objective manner in accordance with the law. With the above directions, the petition stands disposed of. Consequently, M.W.P. No.3236/2003 and I.A. No.10,260/03 also stands disposed of. Certified copy as per rules.
